

18th Annual SASS (Sexual Abuse Survivor's Art Show)

The SASS is a multi-dimensional project featuring the art, music, poetry etc. of sexual and domestic violence abuse survivors. The show offers a safe space for survivors to exhibit the creative works they have completed as a part of the healing process and provides a culturally and socially enriching experience for the public. Now in its eighteenth year, SASS is an annual showcase of the healing power of art for survivors of abuse and is implemented through F·E·G·S's L.I.F.E (Living in Fair Environments) Programs. In the past we've been fortunate to display artwork from all over the world. For any questions, please feel free to contact me (Holly Beck) at hbeck@fegs.org or call the phone number listed below.
